2020 was certainly challenging for publishers and the book trade, with the closure of established brands and disruption to the supply chain. In the midst of this crisis, I hope you remain well and your business is weathering the storm.

Reflecting the economic climate, I am pleased to confirm we are holding our prices through 2021, and there will be no price increase across our portfolio of independent pharmaceutical information publications.

As the Royal Pharmaceutical Society’s knowledge business, we invest all of our resources into creating world-class tools that promote best practice in medicines use, supporting healthcare professionals quickly and confidently make the most informed decisions on the safe and effective use of medicines.

This year we are publishing new print editions of:

- British National Formulary & BNF for Children
  The first choice for concise medicines information.

- Dale and Appelbe’s Pharmacy and Medicines Law
  12th edition of the definitive guide to pharmacy and medicine practice law, revised in line with current law and regulation.

- Adverse Drug Reactions
  Third edition of this practical guide to drug reactions.

- Drugs in Use
  Sixth edition of case studies for pharmacists and prescribers.

- Introducing Palliative Care
  Sixth edition of this key resource for healthcare professionals new to the discipline.

Further supporting healthcare professionals at the point of care, two new resources, Critical Illness and Clarity’s Diagnosis and Treatment Guidance on MedicinesComplete.

If you are unable to place a bulk order for our printed books and products through your normal channels, please email us at pharmpress-support@rpharms.com.

With best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.
